HON. A. P. GOODING

Former Representative to the Legislature From Mason County Dies at the Home of His Daughter in Covington Sunday.

Hon. A. Peter Gooding of Mayslick died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Roy Seaman of Covington Sunday morning at 7 o'clock after an extended illness of heart trouble. He had been with his daughter for a number of months.

Mr. Gooding was 74 years of age and was one of the most prominent men of the county. For a number of years he was an officer of the Burley Tobacco Society. He served in both the upper and lower houses of the Kentucky State Legislature. As an officer in the Bank of Mayslick he came in contact with a great number of people, all of whom were his friends.

Mr. Gooding is survived by three daughters and one son. He was a member of the Masons, Knight Templars and Elks. The body will be sent to this city, arriving here at 1:45 Wednesday afternoon. It will be taken to the home in Mayslick, from which burial will be made Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, instead of Wednesday afternoon as previously announced.

SPEAKS AT MAYSLICK

Hon. W. D. Cochran of this city spoke at Mayslick last night in behalf of Charles Evans Hughes, Republican candidate for President. A large crowd gathered to hear Mr. Cochran. Messrs. Harry Purnell, Clarence Matthews and John Watson Matthews of this city accompanied Mr. Cochran.

ANOTHER CASE

The daughter of Dr. John A. Simpson of Forest avenue is suffering a slight case of scarlet fever. There are several cases of this disease in the city all of which are very mild. The Board of Health has all of them well quarantined and there is no danger of a general spread of the disease.

William Holland was fined $6.50 for drunkenness before Police Judge John L. Whitaker yesterday afternoon.

FAIRBANKS' AGED MOTHER DIES SUDDENLY AT HOME

Indianapolis, Ind., October 30—Mrs. Mary Fairbanks, mother of Charles Warren Fairbanks, died suddenly here at his home tonight. Mr. Fairbanks, who is campaigning in Illinois, is expected home tomorrow. Mrs. Fairbanks was 87 years old, had been enjoying good health and took a long motor ride this afternoon. Late tonight Mrs. Fairbanks became suddenly ill and died shortly after her maid had summoned the members of the household.

She had a home at San Diego, Cal., but divided her time with her son here. She is survived by four sons and a daughter, Charles Warren Fairbanks and Luther M. Fairbanks, of Louisville; Newton Fairbanks and Mrs. M. L. Milligan, of Springfield, O.

Arrangements which were just completed today for a tour of Indiana on a special train by Mr. Fairbanks were abandoned tonight following the announcement of the death of the candidate's mother. The itinerary as arranged would have taken him into every section of the state.

SOCIAL TONIGHT

The Epworth League of the Third Street M. E. Church will hold a Halloween Social tonight in the third story of the Helser building on West Second street now occupied by Mr. Walter Nauman and Bro. as a grocery store. A good time is assured.

SUCCESS

Is Crowning the Efforts of the Finance Committee of the Chamber of Commerce in Their Canvass for Money to Carry on the Tobacco Fair and Corn Show.

Well what do you think—it is being proven that the business men of Maysville are anxious for a good first class fair and they are contributing handsomely to the fund for the big doings to be held November 23, 24 and 25 in the Liberty Warehouse. Well, did we know, that when these fellows were put in touch with what we intended doing in order to put on a show that Maysville would be proud of, they would come across in good shape, and the City of Maysville and the County of Mason can well be proud of the business men and all who are giving so generously of their money and so much of their time to make this big time the biggest ever.

Every day the list of contributions to this fund will be printed in our newspapers for we want the people of this section to know better, the big hearted public spirited men who make up the business end of Maysville. There is no selfishness being shown, that's an old idea, and one that works great harm in a community.

Maysville from this date, on is going to prove to Mason county people and others that the old town is going forward, and this city is going further than this to prove, that the business men of Maysville do appreciate the friendship they hold with many folk who live outside the boundary lines of the city and they are going to make friends with many others.

Many people of the county and city have sent in slogans to be used in connection with the fair and Tuesday afternoon it will be decided whose slogan is the winner of the $5.00 prize offered by the Publicity Committee.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE.

HALLOWEEN FUN-MAKERS HAVE FREE REIN TONIGHT

The witches and hobgoblins and the rest of their mystic retinue will make their annual appearance upon the streets of Maysville tonight. For it's Halloween.

Merry-makers will be allowed to pursue their own carefree way, as Chief of Police James Mackey has announced that the police will keep merely a friendly eye open to see that no undue violence results from the exuberance of spirits.

Maysville is preparing for an unprecedented celebration of the festive night and balls, dances and private masquerades will add to the usual street din of the night.

MISS MAUDE KNIGHT ENTERTAINS

Miss Maude Lilliston Knight entertained about thirty of her friends at her beautiful home on Sixth street last evening with a Halloween party. All of the guests were appropriately masked for the season. Fortune telling and games enlivened the evening. Miss Knight, the charming hostess, represented a Greek Goddess. Delicious refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, were served.

STRAW VOTE

A straw vote was taken in the lobby of the Whitehall Hotel last evening with the result in a tie vote between Hughes and Wilson, the result standing 17 to 17. Cries came from both sides that the vote was considerably more than for the number of persons canvassed. A week from today the straw vote will have been a thing of the past as far as this election is concerned.

"IGNOBLE EASE" AND PEACEFUL SLOTH ARE NOT PEACE.

There is nothing that we of this country so much need as to practice the doctrine of service. As a people we need the sterner virtues even more than we need the softer virtues. Material prosperity, bodily ease, money, pleasure, are all desirable; but woe to us if we consider them as the be-all and end-all of our private lives or of our collective national life! Woe to us if our material prosperity brings in its wake lethargy of spirit and deadness of soul! Let us in our lives apply the great doctrines of duty and of service. Above all let us realize that lofty profession is a mischievous sham when it is not translated into efficient performance. Among the companions of Lucifer in Milton's mighty epic there was none among the fiercer fiends so dangerous as he who "With words clothed in reason's garb, Counseled ignoble ease and peaceful sloth, Not peace."

—From the Speech of Colonel Roosevelt at Battle Creek, Michigan, in Behalf of Mr. Hughes.

IDEALS OF THE SUCCESS OF THE PLAIN PEOPLE

"If I did not believe that the Republican party was the party of true progress, which was prepared under its leadership to take the country along the way of adaptation to new needs and exigencies of the future, I should have no pride in representing it. But the party of Lincoln is reunited today and we consecrate it to the ideals of Lincoln, and those ideals are permanent. These are the ideals of the success of the plain people. They are the ideals of the achievements under free institutions, of success in all the activities of the co-operative energy of the plain people."—Charles E. Hughes in a Speech Delivered at Plattsburg, N. Y.

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Theford's Black-Draught, which I did, and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."

Theford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate the stomach, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

Special Election Notice

In obedience to an order of the Mason County Court, entered at the September term, 1916, notice is hereby given that an election will be held and poll taken in Mason county, Kentucky, at the usual and regular voting places in each of the precincts, on TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1916.

Between the hours of 6 o'clock, a. m., and 4 o'clock, p. m., on said date, at which election all legal voters residing in said precincts, shall be given an opportunity to vote by secret ballot on the question whether the Fiscal Court of Mason county shall be composed of three Commissioners to be elected from the county at large and the Judge of the County Court.

The order calling said election specifying its purpose and directing the manner in which same shall be held, is as follows:

MASON COUNTY COURT. September Term, September 4, 1916. Alfred M. Peed, et al., On Petition. ORDER.

This day came Alfred M. Peed and others and filed a written petition signed by eight hundred and forty-one of the legal voters of Mason county, requesting the Judge of the Mason County Court to submit to the qualified voters of Mason county at the next general election hereafter to be held the question, "whether the Fiscal Court of Mason county shall be composed of three Commissioners, to be elected from the county at large, and the Judge of the County Court," and it appearing that said petition is signed by more than three hundred and fifty of the legal voters of Mason county, and the court being advised, it is therefore ordered and directed that the officers of the election in all the voting precincts in Mason county shall open a poll and take the sense of the legal voters in said county upon said question, said election to be held on Tuesday, November 7th, 1916, between the hours of 6 a. m., and 4 p. m. It is further ordered and directed that the Clerk of the Mason County Court shall prepare ballots to be used at said election, each ballot to have printed thereon the question: "ARE YOU IN FAVOR OF THE FISCAL COURT OF THE COUNTY BEING COMPOSED OF THREE COMMISSIONERS TO BE ELECTED FROM THE COUNTY AT LARGE AND THE JUDGE OF THE COUNTY COURT?"

Given under my hand, at my office, in the City of Maysville, Mason county, Kentucky, this 30th day of September, 1916.

AN UNPROVOKED ASSAULT

President Wilson has gone far out of his way to take an unprovoked slap at some of 40,000 of the most substantial and high-minded citizens of the United States. In an address at Long Branch, N. J., October 16, he said that national banks have been compelled to obey the law for the first time in many years. Thus he puts the officers and directors of the 8,000 national banks in the position of wilful violators of the laws of the country. As a matter of fact, there is no class of people in the United States whose members stand higher in the confidence of their neighbors, than do the men who control our national banks. They are entrusted with the finances of the community. Their advice is sought and followed in all matters of community interest. They are chosen by their fellow citizens to positions of trust in local and state government. Some of them are elected to Congress. They are leaders in commercial, social and religious work in their home cities. While it is true in rare instances a national bank official goes wrong and absconds with funds entrusted to him, the number of such cases is so small as to furnish no justification whatever for the general assault made by President Wilson upon the national bankers as a whole. If the record of President Wilson and the members of his official family in the faithful performance of duty were as good as that of the national bankers, Mr. Wilson might well feel proud of his administration.

FARMERS PAY THE FREIGHT

R. V. Taylor, of Mobile, Ala., vice-president and general manager of the Missouri and Ohio Railroad breezed into Washington recently and announced that he had joined the "Yes, Dammit" Club of St. Louis, Mo. This club is composed of whole-souled but somewhat misguided individuals who were flim-flammed into voting for President Wilson in 1912. Mr. Taylor said he recently had a talk with Flanagan, one of the four railroad brotherhood bandits who held up Wilson and the "Greatest Deliberative Body in the World" and made them pass the eight-hour-day-ten-hour-wage-bill. "Flanagan, just where do you stand on this proposition," asked Mr. Taylor. "Eight hours work, eight hours play, eight hours sleep, and eight dollars a day," replied Flanagan. He was frank about it, at all events. But how many farmers realize eight dollars a day? And yet the farmers will have to come across for a large share of this wage increase when the public is called upon to pay the freight.

THE THING TO DO

When a man has just one round of ammunition to shoot, he can't afford to stand off on a hillside and shoot into the air. Progressives must recognize the fact that this year there are only two contending parties and every voter must either make a quick choice or retire to the deep woods. This is no time for grieving over what might have been. The thing for every Progressive to do is to look pleased and vote for Hughes.—George Ade.

MORE WHEELS

It is stated now that the Democratic women are trying to get the use of 100,000 automobiles to help elect Mr. Wilson. Even if these cars were all Little Henerys, they would represent an investment of about $40,000,000—a sum that makes the headlight of the campaign special dim as a penny candle. Really, isn't it about time for the band to strike up the well-known air, "Everybody's Doing It?"

QUITE CONSISTENT

Josephus Daniels describes the Maine election as a Democratic victory. Why not? It corresponds with his idea of a good navy.—Cleveland Leader.

A number of business men petitioned President Wilson to name November 23 as Thanksgiving day rather than November 30, because the latter date comes too near Christmas. But the President turned them down and named November 30. Perhaps he thought November 23 too near the election to make a good Thanksgiving day.

Democrats have quite pointing with pride and are apologetic now.

"PROSPERITY"

The Democratic party is basing its chief hope of victory in this campaign on the cry of "prosperity." "Wilson has given us good times," say the Democratic orators, "therefore, he should be continued in office."

The Democratic party took over control of the National Government on the 4th of March, 1913. In October of that year the new Democratic tariff law went into effect. Between October, 1913, and the beginning of August, 1914 (when war began in Europe), the Democratic party and the Democratic tariff law had the destinies of the country in their keeping. And during that time the Democratic party and the Democratic tariff law ran absolutely true to form. No Democratic spell-binder raised his voice in the first seven months of 1914 to talk about busy factories and prosperous working men!

Below is a sample of the sort of news that was appearing in the papers during the months when Mr. Wilson and his party were laying to produce prosperity without the assistance of munition contracts:

(From Times-Star January 4, 1914.)
MARCHING IDLE ARMY CRIED FOR FOOD UPON STROKE OF NEW YEAR

Five Hundred Men Paraded the Streets of Chicago—You Are Drunk and We are Hungry! They Shouted—Broke Windows and Punctured Tires of Automobiles.

Chicago, January 1—Entering restaurants and demanding food, breaking windows, and puncturing automobile tires, a crowd of nearly 500 unemployed men early this morning marched through Chicago's business district. They furnished a strange contrast to New Year revelers who were leaving the cafes and restaurants.

The men marched in State street, four abreast, carrying a banner which read: "We demand work, not charity." The army halted street cars and cried to passengers that they wanted work. At Van Buren street the police halted the marchers, but they soon informed their line farther down the street. "Hey, you bums, what's up?" shouted a pedestrian from the curb. "You are drunk and we are hungry," replied one of the leaders. The band finally broke up into small groups.

HUGHES EPIGRAMS

"America will not hold her own by declamation."
"We should have investigation before legislation, not legislation before investigation."

"If you go through the Democratic platforms for the last fifty years you will feel as though you were walking through a cemetery consecrated to departed constitutional theories."

"I do not covet power; power means responsibility. I do not covet honors; I have enjoyed great honors. I simply desire to serve the American people."

"I do not want office simply for the sake of holding the job."

"We've got to get over the idea that 'America is good enough for a job in this country.'"

"I want to see our public administration an honor to American ability."

"Let our watchword be 'America trained to do her best.'"

"When America hesitates the working man is apt to lose his job."

"The Republican party in its policy does not depend upon a foreign war to save this country from disaster."

"Weakness breeds insult; insult breeds war. Honest, firm, consistent, determined defense of known rights establishes peace and respect throughout the world."

Better to wear out than to rust in.

Editorial Comment

Mr. Wilson says the election of Mr. Hughes will mean war with Europe and war with Mexico. Why not chuck in Abyssinia and Patagonia for good measure? One is as likely as the other.

If the Democratic leader who advocates putting dyes on the free list to encourage the industry were a surgeon his method of setting a broken limb would be to amputate the patient's leg at the neck.

Optimism is what makes the Democratic party, which has fooled some of the people only three times in fifty years, and has never yet fooled all of the people some of the time, think that it can now fool all of the people all of the time.

President Wilson hasn't been able to figure out yet whether he is going to be on the stump or up one.

If the paper shortage becomes much more serious the first thing we know the machinery of the State Department will be coming to an abrupt stop.

Then, too, according to the Democratic campaign book that among the more important enactments of the Wilson Administration may be mentioned Magna Charta and the Ten Commandments.

Secretary Redfield converses glibly in terms of billions until it comes time to make a campaign contribution when it is disclosed that all he really knows about mathematics is $100.

Everything has gone up under Wilson except the price of dead Americans.

Senator Jimham Lewis has purchased a new volume of "Unfamiliar Quotations" and expects to be able any day now to give us the classical derivation of "pitiless publicity" and "strict accountability" in the original Babylonian.

Add famous sayings of history: "I will surrender on this line if it takes all summer!"

The Democratic revenue bill, as completed, is regarded as so perfect that the chances are that the taxpayers of New York, Massachusetts and Illinois will be able to build 3,000 more miles of good roads in Alabama next year.

Mr. Hughes is talking to the women of the land in the homely language of the fireside and we expect to witness an impressive rallying of the sex on the first ironing day after the first wash day in November.

FATIGUE—THE DANGER SIGNAL
Do you worry over petty troubles? Do you feel cross and irritable? Is the slightest act an effort?

These are the danger signals of fatigue. When we reach the limit of our mental and physical endurance—when overwork of brain and body starts its drain upon our nervous energy—Nature never fails to flash the danger signals of Fatigue.

From the Medical News.

Dr. F. M. D. says: "There is nothing which is so effective in treating cases of fatigue or nervous exhaustion as a 5-grain toniline tablet. They tone up the whole system, giving new vim, vigor and vitality to each patient treated in a few days."

J. Jas. Wood & Son sell and recommend toniline as the best tonic and builder for all run down, worn out, nervous conditions.

MR. WILSON TOOK PLEASURE IN EXTENDING THE HAND OF WELCOME TO CARRANZA.

One of these "uncivilized" acts was committed on September 29th, when some of Carranza's soldiers captured an American trooper, killed him and cut off his head and ears. Exactly twenty days later, on October 19th, Mr. Wilson expressed "pleasure" in informing Carranza that he recognized him! Since the recognition, Carranza's troops by his orders have treacherously attacked and murdered American soldiers on at least two occasions. If the acts above recited—which are merely samples of the course of conduct Carranza has already pursued—do not constitute "intrigue and assassination, treachery and violence," then the words have lost their meaning. Mr. Wilson took "pleasure" in "extending the hand of welcome" to Carranza, whose own hand is red with the blood of his own nation, and whose hands, unlike the hands of Huerta, were also red with the blood of murdered Americans, and of murdered American civilians, and of murdered American soldiers wearing the American uniform. But President Wilson cared as little for the deaths of these men as he cared for the honor of the uniform. He with "pleasure" "extended the hand of welcome" to the man guilty of their murder.—From the Speech of Colonel Roosevelt at Battle Creek, Michigan, in Behalf of Mr. Hughes.

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS SICK?

Many Maysville People Have Kept Well By Keeping Their Kidneys Well.

The first symptom of kidney trouble may be only a slight pain in the back, a feeling of stiffness or soreness in the loins, or some annoying irregularity of the urinary passages. Urine is often discolored and perhaps sediment gathers upon standing. Next may come a dull, throbbing backache, sharp, knife-like pains, headaches, dizziness and in many cases, lameness when arising in the morning. No one can afford to delay until these troubles become serious. Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills, the tried and tested kidney remedy that has won the praise of thousands. Maysville readers should find convincing proof of merit in the following statement. It's from a resident of this locality.

A. Sorries, Locksmith, Aberdeen, O., says: "The action of my kidneys was irregular and the kidney secretions contained sediment. I had backache and when stooping, it was hard for me to straighten up. Colds always settled on my kidneys. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they stopped the trouble and my kidneys became strong."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Sorries had. Foster-Milburn Co. Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

NICARAGUAN REVENUES MANAGED BY YANKEES FOR DEBT COLLECTION

Mangua, Nicaragua, October 29—Americans are taking over the management of all the internal revenues of Nicaragua.

A dispatch from Managua, October 1, said it was reported American bankers to whom the Nicaraguan Government was indebted had notified Nicaragua that it must liquidate the indebtedness by October 15, or that otherwise they would take over sufficient of the country revenues to reimburse them.

The dispatch added that it was also reported the United States Government was considering the rehabilitation of Nicaragua's finances by adding $2,000,000 to the $3,000,000 due on the canal treaty concession, thus forming a fund to guarantee an issue of 15,000,000 cordobas (a cordoba is equivalent to $1. American gold) with which to pay all debts.

The roc, a fabulous bird often referred to in the "Arabian Nights," was believed to be of such enormous size and strength as to be able to carry even elephants in its talons.

HUGHES WILL WIN, SAYS WILCOX

Republican Party Will Achieve An Overwhelming Victory at the Polls, Nov. 7th

EVERY VOTER AT THE POLLS

United Party Will Register Full Vote in All States in Union—Mr. Voter, Do Your Share, Vote Early.

Louisville, Ky., (Special).—The Campaign Chairman's prediction of overwhelming victory for his party has become so commonplace that his bare statement no longer carries weight with the voters of the country. Fully recognizing this condition, National Republican Chairman Wilcox issues a statement that gives in detail his reasons for predicting the election of Hughes and Fairbanks.

Mr. Wilcox's statement, published October 20th, says: "The people of the United States have made up their minds in favor of Mr. Hughes and against Mr. Wilson and that is all there is to it," said William R. Wilcox, chairman of the Republican National Committee, today. "They have given positive proof of it on numerous occasions this fall, proof that can not be denied, misunderstood or misinterpreted. In a dozen states from Maine to California, from Michigan to Maryland, where the voters have had a chance to stand up and be counted, they have unfailingly taken advantage of the opportunity to show their determined preference for Mr. Hughes instead of Mr. Wilson. There is no exception."

"This is the thing that counts. I don't make any difference what claims campaign managers put forth. It is the way the people vote that does the real talking. Here is how they have been voting. In California, 307,793 Republicans voted in the primaries and only 77,830 Democrats. In Maine, the voters were counted at an election and Maine's answer was emphatic and conclusive. There were 79,902 Republicans and 66,547 Democrats. That was after a campaign hotly contested on both sides, and where the Democratic managers made support of President Wilson the cardinal issue. New Jersey and Massachusetts showed exactly the same situation. In each state there was a Democratic contest with one side supported by the administration; in each state the administration candidate was defeated, and in each state the total Democratic vote was far below that of the Republican.

Wilson Loses Own Borough. "In New Jersey, Senator Martine seeking re-nomination, polled 50,951. Judge Wescott, who had the administration support against Martine, polled 29,827; this was a hard fight, which attracted attention all over the country because of the efforts of President Wilson's friends to defeat Martine. While this bitter contest was going on there was a good-natured campaign in the Republican primaries between Joseph Frelinghuysen and Franklin Murphy, each of whom polled more votes than both Martine and Wescott combined. Frelinghuysen won with 89,361, to 81,480 for Murphy. The total Republican vote was 187,414; the total Democratic vote 119,513. In this primary the borough of Princeton, where

Mr. Wilson is exceptionally well known, cast 575 Republican votes and only 262 Democratic votes. Four years ago at the election, Wilson had 863 and the combined opposition 706. These figures show what a change has occurred in Mr. Wilson's home borough.

"In Massachusetts, where the Democratic fight was over the gubernatorial nomination, the total vote was 81,052, while in the Republican primaries Gov. McCall, unopposed, received 115,242.

"Back on the Pacific Coast, the primaries in the State of Washington showed exactly the same kind of result. 214,660, voting in the Republican primary and only 34,970 in the Democratic primary. The Democrats have been making some talk about carrying Washington. That means that they only expect about 80,000 of the Republicans who voted in the primaries to vote the Democratic ticket at the election. There is a fair example of the quality of the Democratic claims.

"Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois, Kansas and Ohio, in the Middle West, have all given the same kind of an indication. In Kansas, for instance, 138,916 voters cast ballots in the Republican primaries and only 47,445 in the Democratic primaries. The Democratic managers have not yet had the audacity to claim Kansas, but they have talked about carrying Michigan, Illinois, Ohio and Wisconsin. But in each of these states the voters have shown at the primaries what they would do in November. In Michigan 284,640 votes were cast in the Republican primaries and only 29,935 in the Democratic. In Illinois 420,959 Republicans voted in the primaries, against 189,343 Democrats. In Wisconsin, 83,072 Republicans voted in the primaries, against 39,501 Democrats.

"New York state gave precisely the same kind of indication, 298,097 Republican votes being cast at the primaries and only 158,718 Democratic votes.

"Of course, the primary vote is never as large as the vote at the election. Election day is always a holiday, and the polls are open all day long. Primary day in most states is not a holiday and the polls are usually open considerably less than the full day. The full vote, therefore, is never polled at a primary, but there is one striking feature of all these primary votes, the meaning of which is absolutely unmistakable. This feature is the great preponderance of interest of the Republican side. In every case, without exception, it was the Republican voters who had the interest and took the trouble to go to the polls. No clearer evidence could be given of the intention of the voters to manifest their Republican preference on November 7.

"In none of the states outside of the solid South, where a primary election has been held this year, has the Democratic vote come within halting distance of the Republican vote.
5,000 Switch in Maryland.
"Down in Maryland, a similar indication has been given at the registration, where intending voters express their party affiliations for the ensuing year. In this registration the Democrats have lost more than 2,000 and the Republicans have gained more than 2,000, making a net change of more than 5,000, or considerably more than enough to overcome the Democratic majority at the last election.
"The Democrats have been entertaining themselves with amusing claims about the possibility of their carrying Pennsylvania. We are just in receipt of the figures of the enrollment in Philadelphia, which shows 242,548 voters enrolled as Republicans and 35,679 as Democrats.
"These figures are incontestable. They show beyond possibility of question how utterly preposterous has been the rainbow chasing of Democratic managers. Their claims that President Wilson is going to carry half of the Northern states, including Pennsylvania, Michigan, Wisconsin and several more, are not entitled to any consideration. They are nothing but the vaporings of a lot of anxious politicians who do not know where they are at."

CHRISTIAN CHURCH SERVICES TONIGHT

A good audience; a good sermon, congregational singing and a fine fellowship made the service in the Christian Church last night a very helpful one. The one tonight will be equally as good. The speaker will be Rev. H. Kerr Taylor who is soon to close his short pastorate in this city. Miss Williams who is leading the congregational singing will have special music also. Last night Dr. P. G. Smoot and Miss Williams sang a very pretty duet.

A change in the time of beginning was announced. From tonight on these meetings will begin at seven o'clock. The speakers as they will come for the week are H. M. Stansifer of Flemingsburg, will come Wednesday; P. C. Cross, Ripley, Thursday and E. B. Bourland from Carlisle for Friday.

Those who attended who are not members of the church is C. O. Cossaboom, the Millersburg minister, who was the speaker last night, spoke on the native in Paul's life which made him one of the eight most prominent men in history. His sermon was replete with good illustrations.

It would be a pleasure to have him return again.

HUGHES FAVORS COMPETITIVE POSTOFFICE APPOINTMENTS

New York, October 30—Legislation providing for competitive appointment of postmasters has been endorsed by Charles E. Hughes, Republican nominee for the Presidency, according to a statement issued here tonight by the National Civil Service Reform League. In a letter to George T. Keyes, secretary of the league, Mr. Hughes is quoted as saying: "On account of my absence on campaign tours, it has been impossible to give your letter of September 26, earlier attention. You say that the National Civil Service League, has entered upon a campaign for legislation which will provide for the competitive classification of first, second and third class postmasters, and you ask whether I would favor or oppose legislation to accomplish such extension of the classified service. "I beg to say that I favor such legislation."

The league announced that a communication on the subject also had been sent to President Wilson, but that no reply has as yet been received.

WHY "RAMONA" IS POPULAR

When the Clune Film Producing Company of Los Angeles decided on "Ramona" as their next big production, they showed much business acumen in selecting a book that it is estimated has had over twenty million readers.

Helen Hunt Jackson's famous story has had a sale of over 400,000 copies and it is the usual rule to figure that each book will be read by at least five persons.

There are now 16 companies presenting "Ramona" in the United States and as soon as the European War ends, it will be taken over there. There are 1000 separate and distinct scenes in "Ramona" and it required 8 months to complete it with its wealth of detail. It is claimed by its sponsors to mark a new era in the field of motion photography and to be the most beautiful and artistic photo spectacle at present before the public.

"Ramona," with a special augmented orchestra to play its magnificent musical accompaniment, will be the attraction at the Washington Theater on Wednesday and Thursday.
